

512 The Star-Spangled Banner

1. O say, can you see, by the dawn's ear - ly light,
2. O thus be it ev - er when free men shall stand

What so proud - ly we hailed at the twi-light's last gleam - ing,
Be - tween their loved homes and the war's des - o - la - tion;

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the per - il - ous fight,
Blest with vic - t'ry and peace, may the heav'n-res - cued land

O'er the ram - parts we watched, were so gal - lant - ly stream - ing?
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and pre-served us a na - tion!

Words, Francis Scott Key, 1814. Tune NATIONAL ANTHEM, Origin Unknown, 18th Century.

And the rock - ets' red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air
Then con - quer we must, when our cause it is just;

Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
And this be our mot-to: "In God is our trust!"

O say, does that Star - span - gled Ban - ner yet
And the Star - span - gled Ban - ner in tri - umph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
