

Golden Gate Bridge

Words and Music by IRENE B. ANDERSON

C F C G7
 We're bridg-ing the Gold - en Gate San Fran-cis - co wel - comes you To C F C D7 G7
 Mon-arch of steel and stone with it's arms wide spread to you Queen
 C D7 G7
 come here and cel - e - brate the Oak - land Bay Bridge too A - of the Pa - cif - ic coast the world will bow to you by C D7 G7
 cross the bay from shore to shore these glor - ious bridg - es span Thru sun-rise or by sun - set you'll meet sights be - yond com - pare Sail
 D7 G7 D7 G7 C
 years of toil by man's might - y hand Gi - gan - tic - 'ly they'll stand. — thru by boat or trav - el the top of our high-way in the air. —

CHOS. G7 G7 C

Come one come all come o-ver the bridge The glor - i - ous Gold - en
 G7 C
 Gate Bridge In - to a ci - ty where wel - come guest
 G7 C G7
 See all it's beau - ty at na - tures best Just to stroll thru our Park —
 C G7
 Roam the beach - es and cliffs — Our dear ci - ty's been blessed —
 C G7
 Na - ture sent her these gifts — Our har - bor's grand the best in the land — Our sun-kissed hills bloom — with pop - pies So F C trav - el this way — o - ver our moon - lit bay — Come one come D7 G7 C
 all come o - ver the bridge The glor - i - ous Gold - en Gate Bridge. —

Price 15 cents

Copyright 1934 by Irene B. Anderson
Consolidated Music Pub. 942 Market St. San Francisco